Thomaston Shipwright's Home Featured at Home for the Holidays

The Thomaston Historical Society will feature the Morton Lermond House, a beautiful Greek Revival home at 48 Green Street, Thomaston for its 11th Holiday house tour on Friday, December 8 from 5-7 PM and Saturday, December 9 from 10-3 PM. The Friday evening event will feature a cocktail party, live auction with auctioneers Bruce Gamage and Kaja Veilleux, a silent auction and live music by The Teacups. On Saturday the house will be open between 10 AM and 3 PM for touring and the silent auction.

Tickets for Friday night are $18-members and $20-non-members and include wine, savories and sweets and are limited to 100. Advanced ticket sales are strongly recommended for Friday night. Tickets for Saturday are $8-members and $10-non-members. Checks for advanced sales can be sent to Thomaston Historical Society, P.O. Box 384, Thomaston, ME 04861. For more information call 354-7029.
